

MADISON INDIANA BICENTENNIAL FIRE MUSTER

JUNE 6TH 2009

- ANTIQUE FIRE APPARATUS DISPLAY
Scenic river front - Madison Indiana, Saturday June 6th. 2009.
- Tour Historic Madison (est.1809), History Homes, Saddle Tree Factory, and Specialty Shops.
- Tour (6) Fire Stations
- Oldest Volunteer Fire Co. in Indiana (est. 1841)
- Oldest Operating Fire Station in USA (built 1848)
- Rainbow color apparatus displayed of the Madison Fire Department
- County Fire departments displayed, (Jefferson, IN. and Trimble, KY.)

Muster display 10am to 5pm , arrive at your convenience.

Overnight security provided if needed

Dash Plaques and food provided free for participants

Possible parade down Main St at 2pm.

No entry fees for display or sales

Fire memorabilia display and sales can be accommodated

Drafting can be arranged from hydrant, drop tank or river if requested.

Trolley and carriage tours of downtown area available at a charge.

Apparatus must be insured with liability and property damage insurance. Entries must conform to standard Muster guidelines.

Sponsored by Madison Fire Department and Bicentennial Committee.

Listing of events and activities for the week/year, go to: madisonbicentennial.com

For Muster activities: Contact: Frank Taff, 609 West Main St., Madison IN., 47250

Home phone 812-265-3762, email: ftaff@verizon.net